LAST ONE NOSES OUT GUV'NOR FOR FIRST PLACE IN OVERSEAS HANDICAP

GOLDBLATT ENTRY SECOND AND THIRD IN CUBAN FEATURE

Three Favorites Come Through in Six Events. Huge Crowd Present.

HAVANA. March 25. — Today's meet at Oriental Park was greeted by an immense throng, both natives and tourists composing the attend-ance.

The weather was all that could be asked for while the track was greatly improved over the two pre-vious days, good time being record-ed in the various events.

The management had prepared an attractive card of six races, built up around the Overseas Handicap, an event for 3-year-olds and up, at 6 furlongs. The handicap contained but six candidates, but they were all classy and had their backers when the hour for betting arrived. The Goldblatt entry, Guv'nor and Ararat, was favorite to win the Ararat, was favorite to win the event, with The Boy having second call, and Last One. Belle of Eliza-bethtown and Mayor House next in order as named. Last One got off in second position and won by a neck from Guv'nor, which made a desperate effort, but just failed to get up with his stable mate Aratat third, half a length back. The talent and the bookies split even on the day, three favorites tak-ing first place in six races.

wintered nearby will doubtless be heard from before the meeting is under way for many days. During the past, few trainers have been able to accomplish a great deal in the preparation of their charges for the opening of the season and the horses that wintered at the Bowie course are now rounding to racing shape rapidly.

Quite a number of 2-year-olds at the course have already received much of their racing education and are being schooled at the barrier each day.

Nearly 100 thoroughbreds spent the winter months at the old Benning track and these will be seen under colors during the Bowie meeting. Among the well-known trainers at Benning is the veteran W.
